

Ashley Silver Bio

As an undergraduate, Ashley obtained a bachelor's degree from Columbia University in New York and a bachelor's degree from the Jewish Theological Seminary also located in New York City.

Thereafter, Ashley attended UCLA School of Law, graduated in May of 2014 and was admitted to the California State Bar in 2015. While in law school, Ms. Silver externed in both the Federal District Court as well as the Family Law Division of the Los Angeles Superior Court. Since earning her Juris Doctorate and passing the bar, Ms. Silver's practice of law has been devoted primarily to family law and personal injury law. In 2016, Ashley joined O&O Investigations, Inc. as an investigator and eventually became co-owner and qualified manager of the company in California. Recently, Ashley moved to Georgia and established her own PI Firm, Silver Consulting Group, where she continues her work conducting extensive background, asset, and open-source intelligence investigations for clients, nationwide. During her tenure as a private investigator, Ashley has taught extensively on background and social media investigations to private investigators, analysts, lawyers and bail bondsmen.

Summary of Course: This course will provide an overview on the need for a "human-touch" when conducting social media research. Specifically, we will explore the process of locating, identifying and reviewing the Subject's social media accounts for relevant evidence. Further, we will also consider and discuss the necessity to go "beyond" the Subject as a means of comprehensively conducting social media research.
