

Courtney Doroski is a Licensed Private Investigator in Florida and began her career as a police officer in Daytona Beach, FL. She's earned multiple commendation awards and medals for her outstanding work, and learned the complexity of the investigative and security industry. She received specialized training from FDLE in Advanced Interviews/Interrogations, Adult Sex Crimes Investigations, Child Sex Crimes Investigations, Social Media Investigations, High Level Undercover tactics, Cyber Investigations, handwriting analysis, and the Ethics in Artificial Intelligence. And will lead NITA's Florida Security D training curriculum as the lead DI-licensed instructor. She is also a member of several national security and investigative organizations including NCISS, IAI, IALEIA, FDI AI, and FALI.