

Daphne Tarver Bio

Daphne Tarver-Former Chief of the Investigations Division of the Gwinnett Solicitor-General's Office and Assistant Chief of the Gwinnett District Attorney's Office. Served in law enforcement since 1996. Beginning her career with the Miami-Dade Police Dept. Honorably serving a decade in Miami, as a patrol officer and a field training officer. Since moving to Georgia, she's been with the Walton County Sheriff's Office Criminal Investigations Division and then the Alcovy Judicial Circuit Criminal Investigations Division assigned to investigate major felony cases. She has been a founder in the creation of Special Victim's Units at each agency she's worked with. Specializing in child abuse, sexual abuse, and at-risk adult exploitation cases.

She earned a criminal justice technical certificate from Miami Dade College and has since obtained numerous advanced certifications related to law enforcement. She's been trained in forensic interviews, extended interview techniques, and advanced training in Childfirst and National Child Advocacy Center models. She has been consulted and testified as a subject matter expert in a vast array of topics related to criminal investigations, crimes against children's investigations, forensic interviews, adult sex crimes, and the victimology associated with those cases. She has been a member of the Sexual Assault Response Team, Elder Abuse Task Force, Child Fatality Review Board, Sexual Abuse and Child Abuse Protocol Boards, and the Child Abuse Multi-Disciplinary Team. She is a training coordinator, and a speaker focused on criminal investigations law enforcement procedures, domestic violence, sexual abuse, human trafficking, child sexual abuse, and child maltreatment. She is now venturing into private consulting and investigations, bringing with her 28 years of experience and expertise.